

NYS DIVISION ON CAREER DEVELOPMENT AND TRANSITION

APRIL TRANSITION TIDBITS

1

WEBINAR: PLANNING FOR SUCCESS POST COVID-19

In this webinar, you will learn how to help your teachers and students take the next steps towards success either through MTSS or through the five key considerations discussed in the presentation, which can be applied to any situation. May 12th from 5:30-6:30 EST. Click here to register.

ASSIST WITH RESEARCH

You may be eligible to participate in our study if you are a youth with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), a parent of youth with ASD, or a professional (i.e., SPED teacher) who has participated or currently participate in transition planning. Participants will receive a $20 Amazon gift card for study participation. If you would like to learn more about this study, please contact Jennifer Kim at jenniferkim@gatech.edu.

ADDRESSING DIGITAL ACCESSIBILITY

Given that the law requires districts to provide accessible materials, including curricular content and websites to students and the community, it is helpful to learn about resources, tips, and information to build accessibility into educational materials and services. This webinar allows us to hear from district leaders who have made accessibility a cornerstone of their school district. Click here to learn more.

SOCIAL MEDIA FOR PEER2PEER ENGAGEMENT

Instagram, Snapchat, TikTok & Beyond: This session presented by youth engagement and leadership professionals will explore effective practices and resources that can promote and enhance communication and engagement of students with disabilities. Click here for more information.

SUPPORTING COLLEGE STUDENTS WITH MENTAL HEALTH CONDITIONS IN THE WAKE OF COVID-19

This webinar is for providers who currently provide supported education services or who support college students on campus in the Office of Disability/Accessibility and other academic support offices. This webinar shares strategies that help students develop organizational strategies while working from home.
